

- Special regulations for the employment of human resources in the free zone and the availability of skilled, productive and cheap human resources.
- Exporting products abroad without customs and port duties
- Possibility to export products produced from foreign raw materials to the amount authorized by the value added commission
- Establish private or foreign banks and insurance or their branches
- %100 income and corporate tax exemption for 20 years
- Possibility to exploit land in projects without paying the land price, long-term lease or participation in projects, as well as the possibility of transferring to companies registered in Iran
- Possibility to own %100 of shares of foreign companies
- Company registration with 100% foreign ownership
- Freedom to transfer foreign currency abroad without any restrictions
- 100% capital and profit repatriation
- Granting Guarantee for foreign investments according to Foreign Investment Promotion And Protection Act
- The possibility of establishing bank and domestic and international insurance or their branches
- Enjoying special regulations on exports, imports and customs
- No visa requirement and easy issuance of residence and entry permit for foreign visitors

