

Overview of the Organization

Chabahar Free Industrial Zone is one of the seven free zones of Iran that has been established over two decades in line with the economic goals of the country in the city of Chabahar and on the outskirts of the Oman Sea. Given the definition of free zones and their necessity, the Chabahar Free Zone Organization has devoted all of its efforts to play its deserved role, in proportion to its capacity, for the development of the national and regional economy. On the eve of the third-millennium economy and trade, the Chabahar Free Zone has provided the necessary infrastructure to become a dynamic free zone. This region not only has influence in the national economy but also it has become an important and a major opening of economic, social and political point in the lives Sistan and Baluchistan province residents

